General Welfare Requirement: Safeguarding and Promoting Children’s Welfare

The provider must take necessary steps to safeguard and promote the welfare of children.

Safeguarding children

1.1 Children's rights and entitlements

Policy Statement

- We promote the children's right to be strong, resilient and listened to by creating an environment in our setting that encourages children to develop a positive self-image, which includes: their heritage arising from their colour and ethnicity, their languages spoken at home, their religious beliefs, cultural traditions and home background.
- We promote the children's right to be strong, resilient and listened to by encouraging children to develop a sense of autonomy and independence.
- We promote the children's right to be strong, resilient and listened to by enabling children to have the self-confidence and the vocabulary to resist inappropriate approaches.
- We help children establish and sustain satisfying relationships within their families, with peers and with other adults.
- We work with parents to build their understanding of, and commitment to, the principles of safeguarding all our children.
